TONY :-------------------------!

NICK:Can -------------- tell me what is going on here?

TONY :Does this clear things up for you a little?

NICK :Oh, ----------!

TIM :You ------------------ them? No.

NICK :-------------------- I?

TONY :I ------------ it looks different through the scope of an M16.

Why -------------- you help him out, McGee?

TIM :It's your sniper's nest at Fort Scott Park.

where you ---------- Petty Officer Meyers.

NICK :Where I -----------?! Are you insane?

TONY: Well, I can't speak for Tim, but, uh, me, no.

I'm itchy, I'm ----------------, and I have a --------------.

TIM :Where'd you get the poison oak?

NICK :I cut across a hiking trail on my way to meet Meyers.

The path was covered in it.

TONY :Is this the same meeting where he ended up ----------------?

NICK:I had -------------- to do with it!

Meyers was shot by the Tri-State Sniper.

---------------- he?

TONY :No, someone staged it to ----------------- that.

Would you have any idea -------------- would want him dead?

NICK :Oh, ------------------.

I would have said something before, but I thought that the sniper was ----------------------, so I didn't ------------- that it was relevant.

TIM :What wasn't relevant?

NICK :When we went on deployment ----------------, Meyers' got word that his sister ----------------------- for possession.

He was beside himself at the thought of her going to ----------------.

And he told me that he was going to find a way to ------------- for a top-notch lawyer.

A couple days --------------, he confesses to planting a hidden camera onboard.

It didn't make any --------------.

Meyers was not ---------------- of a person.

And I I always thought that he took the fall.

TIM :Who was he -------------------- for?

NICK :I -----------------, but Ashley's death… it ------------------------------- things.

He told me that her family deserved to --.

And I think that he was planning on coming clean with--------------------------.

-------------------------- got to him first.
